COMMUNITY CENTER REPORT:

- The city of Avon will own property but the Community Center Board will run the building and be responsible for hiring the contractors to do the improvements. Things that need to be worked out yet are who's going to do the removal of snow, plumbing and other improvements. The school will still be leased to the Montessori school and the food shelf. The church also wants to have some room for storing the Christmas items. The dioceses should be meeting Jan 12. The board is working with Dan Zimmerman, the attorney and the Avon City Council. There will be public meeting sometime in March.
- For the fundraiser there will be a bologna feed on Jan. 19. The price has increased to $12. All working positions have been filled.

SENIOR GROUP:

- Soup and Sandwiches will be 01/27/26 with white chicken Chili and sandwiches.
- Board Director elections were held to fill openings for JoAnn D., Judy, and Mike. Also needed is a two-year term member to finish Joann Carlson term position. The nominees are Shirley Smith, Jane Schreibels and Cheri Appel; and Gary Schnobrich for Joann Carlson. Cheri Appel made motion to close nominations and second by Katie Reiling. Motion carried. New board members were approved.
- There is a Day trip planned for June 17. A play called "Nobody's Perfect". Details to come later.
